

April 2017 NEW PRODUCT RELEASE

New from Midwest Automation! SCOUT DEBURRING & FINISHING MACHINES

Midwest is pleased to announce the addition of our new Scout Deburring and Finishing Machine to our fast growing line of metal deburring, finishing and edge rounding machines!

The Scout is single head dry machine that is ideal for customers who need to remove surface burrs and dross using a coated abrasive or Scotch-Brite™ belts. Available in 37 and 52 inch wide models, the Scout is an affordable machine designed for years of service.

SCOUT DEBURRING & FINISHING

Features & Benefits

- Heavy-duty welded steel frame
- Conveyor bed is surface ground to ensure flatness
- Automatic conveyor and abrasive belt tracking
- Large diameter contact drum is precision ground and high speed balanced
- Electronic variable speed drive with digital display
- Electronic thickness adjustment with HMI/PLC and color monitor
- Spring-loaded infeed and outfeed pinch rollers
- Optional adjustable belt head with eccentric and dial indicator
- Optional abrasive belt motor upgrades
- Made in the USA!

FINISH WITH MIDWEST AUTOMATION

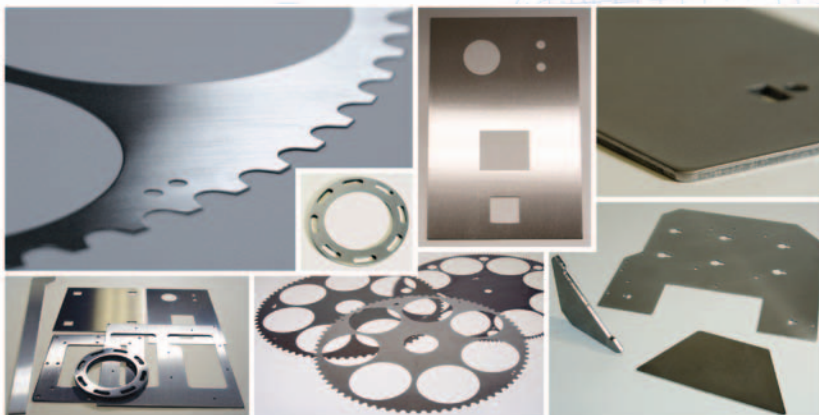

Made in USA!

CONTACT GARY HAIDER

612.843.1365 Direct

ghaider@midwestautomation.com

2645 26th Avenue South, Minneapolis, MN 55406

phone 612-721-5347 www.midwestautomation.com • sales@midwestautomation.com